1 The Book of The New Day

1.1 Troy Ounces' Preface

- 1.1.1 If I bow to her as is my duty
And if she never returns my salutation
Have I just cause for complaint?
Lovely lady, feel no obligation.

1.2 V's Preface

- 1.2.1 You are the New Day.
You are the New Day.
I will love you more than me and more than yesterday.
If you can but prove to me—You are the New Day.
- 1.2.2 Sends the suns in time for dawn.
Let the birds all hail the morning
Love of life will urge me say
You are the New Day.
- 1.2.3 When I lay me down at night
Knowing we must pay
Thoughts occur that this night might stay yesterday
- 1.2.4 Thoughts that we as dreamers small
Could slur words and end it all
Lie around me where they fall
Before the New Day
- 1.2.5 Before the New Day.
- 1.2.6 One more day when time is running out for every one
Like a breath I knew would come
I reach for a New Day.
- 1.2.7 Hope is my philosophy
Just these days in which to be
Love of Life means hope for me
Born on a New Day.
- 1.2.8 You are the New Day

1.3 The Prince Who Was 1000's Preface

- 1.3.1 My beloved is Three
Three yet only one—
Many things appear as three,
Which are no more than one.
- 1.3.2 Give her no name
As if to limit one
At sight of whom
All limitation is confounded.

1.4 Eressea's Prayer

- 1.4.1 Death is not the cause. Life is not the cause.
Order, Chaos, Water, Fire, Ground, Wind: these are not the cause.
- 1.4.2 I have seen the cause: One moment.
- 1.4.3 A soldier looks up and sees the face of the Woman for whom they are soon to die—one moment. A god takes into himself the power of the ancients and realizes his mistake, too late—one moment. A young girl holds a block, and for the first time really sees it—one moment. The morning sun strikes a mountaintop, and a great beast stirs and rises in terrible beauty—one moment.
- 1.4.4 A mighty crusader see his god in weakness—one moment. A child severs her friends arm to save his sanity—one moment. A desert man sees the ocean—one moment. A lost one touches his student's singing throat —one moment.
- 1.4.5 A grandfather asks forgiveness—one moment.
- 1.4.6 This is the cause. This book is merely the means.

1.5 Purpose

- 1.5.1 This Book of The New Day shall be a Compact of agreements, a meeting of Minds governing Overriding Objectives in the Worlorn System.

1.6 Breadth and application

- 1.6.1 Under this Compact between The Eight Major Archetypes of Worlorn System, while one part is true, then all parts are true.
- 1.6.2 This Book of The New Day sustains and applies its own Truth throughout the Wastelands of Worlorn System when all parts are true.

1.6.3 Let the Overriding Objective named before in this Book of The New Day overcome the Overriding Objective named afterwards should one place and one time manifest opposing Overriding Objectives which bring falseness to this Book of The New Day.

1.7 Alterations to the Book of The New Day

1.7.1 Under this Compact between The Eight Major Archetypes of Worlorn System, when one part is false, then all parts are false. This Book of The New Day is void when all parts are false.

1.7.2 Alterations to Book of The New Day shall occur exclusively on All Hallows Day with the manifest ratification of the Wielder of the Muse of Dance .

1.7.3 Sentient Dragons may edit Book of The New Day upon retiring to the caverns below the Isle of Sleep.

1.7.4 Runestaff WILD MAGIC:

- May add Overriding Objectives to the Compact.
- May not delete existing Overriding Objectives of the Compact.
- May not change existing Overriding Objectives of the Compact.
- May not contradict the Overriding Objectives of the Compact.

1.7.5 Kuroth's Quill may add Overriding Objectives to this Book of The New Day when both pen and codex are manifestly present in their Archetypes.

~~1.7.6 Kuroth's Quill may strike Overriding Objectives from this Book of The New Day when both pen and codex are manifestly present in their Archetypes.~~

1.7.7 Book of The New Day may be broadened by new Overriding Objectives through the manifest presence of unanimous will among The Eight Major Archetypes expressed on All Hallows Eve each year.

1.7.8 Book of The New Day may be broadened by a single Overriding Objective through the manifest presence of will by an entity trained in Worlorn System Truth under teachers at Roke Island. Such entities may manifest their Roke Attributes when local conditions permit.

1.7.9 Morgan's Blessing

- No addendum or Overriding Objective afterwards within this Book of The New Day may deny Eressea access to sanctuary in Dolbadarn in any time she manifests the need for sanctuary.
- Neither The Eight Major Archetypes nor WILD MAGIC shall alter this Book of The New Day to deny Eressea access to sanctuary in Dolbadarn in any time she manifests the need for sanctuary.
- Any attempt to modify this section 1.7.9 of this Book of The New Day shall be answered by the manifest will of Morgan La Faye, or her Great Works if she is not Crossing-in-the-mist.

1.7.10 Kuroth's Quill may strike Overriding Objectives from this Book of The New Day when both pen and codex are manifestly present in their Archetypes.

1.7.11 Llyr's Curse

- Any attempt to modify this section 1.7.9 of this Book of The New Day shall be answered by the manifest will of The Eight Major Archetypes if the entity survives Morgan La Faye's manifest will.

15 Player Reference Only: Glossary of Terms

15.0.1 Section 15: "Player Reference Only: Glossary of Terms" is not part of the Overriding Objectives of Worlorn System.

15.1 Players' Glossary

Term	Definition
Archetype	Archetype or prime aspect of a thing or force. The model from which all lesser/shadows are cast.
Life	The Fourth Archetype of Worlorn System, one of The Eight Major Archetypes. Opposes Death.
Chaos	The First Archetype of Worlorn System, one of The Eight Major Archetypes. Opposes Order.
Fire	The Sixth Archetype of Worlorn System, one of The Eight Major Archetypes. Opposes Water.
Ground	The Seventh Archetype of Worlorn System, one of The Eight Major Archetypes. Opposes Wind.
Order	The Second Archetype of Worlorn System, one of The Eight Major Archetypes. Opposes Chaos.
Death	The Third Archetype of Worlorn System, one of The Eight Major Archetypes. Opposes Life.
Water	The Fifth Archetype of Worlorn System, one of The Eight Major Archetypes. Opposes Fire.
Wind	The Eighth Archetype of Worlorn System, one of The Eight Major Archetypes. Opposes Ground.
Immutable Personal Archetype	Brown character sheet written in ink. Earned by characters passing through the trial of Hissarlik and returning to the lands of the character's origin.
Attribute Archetype	This is the ability to create a Strange Attractor, or magic item, through will and concentration. This is not a magic item; it is an ability. Historically and in Hissarlik, this ability is reflected in a colored file card.
Competently Sustained Archetype	The ability to create and use a Second generation Artifact from the Courts of Chaos. Historically this ability is reflected in a green page with the complete item description.
Competence	The ability to do something perfectly when unopposed. Historically this ability is reflected through the character not requiring a die roll for success.
Immutable Archetype	A powerful Strange Attractor which does not vary its abilities with local conditions. This item is usually defined explicitly in the DM's notes or TSR books. Historically this ability is reflected in a Mint Card.
Sustained Archetype	Historically this type of Strange Attractor has appeared on a white file card as a normal generic 'carded item.' Historically this type of Strange Attractor is required to affect dreams of Swefen proportion.
Book of The New Day	This is the full Proper Name of the Compact's current incarnation.
Compact	This item is the book of laws which govern the planes of Worlorn System. When characters earn certain abilities of MAJOR IMPORTANCE, such as Archetype proportion, they are rewarded by a guarantee of their powers anywhere they go in Mark's D&D world. This book is the guarantee of such powers in all places.
Crossing-in-the-mist	This is the name characters give to an adventure. There are certain magics which recognize whether a character is on an adventure or not. These magics are interpreted as when dreamers cross-in-the-mists of the dream.
Dreamer	This is a name used interchangeably and inaccurately to mean both player and character. People who know what they're talking about use the term to describe the player, or dreaming dragon controlling the character. Certain magics can detect this correspondence, and some even can cause characters to switch or be lost by their dreamers/players.
Focus	Magic item or Strange Attractor which controls a power of magnitude.
Foundation	Basis or core of the source.
Great Work	Immense magical feat which changes the course of history
Overriding Objective	Law
Sovereign	Ruler, boss, gal in charge, mistress of ultimate power, Queen, Empress, etc. The One Who Makes the Rules.
Strange Attractor	Magic Item
Llewghund	This is currently the first and most powerful turf of Worlorn System.
Light of the World	This is the object that lets the Chaos guys control Llewghund when Sentient Rib isn't home.
Sentient Rib	This is the current wielder of the first turf.
New Troad	This is currently the second turf of Worlorn System.
Maker of Rules	This is the object that lets the Order guys control New Troad when Tanngrisenir isn't home.
Tanngrisenir	This is the current wielder of the second turf.
Plane of the Reaper	This is currently the third turf of Worlorn System.
Golden Bowl of the Buddha	This is the object that lets the Death guys control Plane of the Reaper when Nerull The Reaper isn't home.

15.1 Players' Glossary

Term	Definition
Nerull The Reaper	This is the current wielder of the third turf.
Fountains of Paradise	This is currently the fourth turf of Worlorn System.
Star of Beauty	This is the object that lets the good guys control Fountains of Paradise when Phoenix isn't home.
Phoenix	This is the current wielder of the forth turf.
Watersea	This is currently the fifth turf of Worlorn System.
<Watersea Focus>	This is the object that lets the good guys control Watersea when The Prince Who Was 1000 isn't home.
The Prince Who Was 1000	This is the current wielder of the fifth turf.
Flambeau	This is currently the sixth turf of Worlorn System.
Star of Fire	This is the object that lets someone control Flambeau when Greater Prince of Evil Drow Devils isn't home.
Greater Prince of Evil Drow Devils	This is the current wielder of the sixth turf.
Dolbadarn	This is currently the seventh turf of Worlorn System.
Candle in the Wind	This is the object that lets the good guys control Dolbadarn when Eressea isn't home.
Eressea	This is the current wielder of the seventh turf.
Crosswinds	This is currently the eighth turf of Worlorn System.
Wind Chimes	This is the object that lets the good guys control Crosswinds when Chrysofar isn't home.
Chrysofar	This is the current wielder of the eighth and least of the turfs. Don't get cocky. The least is still more than you'd ever live through.
The Eight Major Archetypes	This is the Turf Holder club, an exclusive group which is comprised of up to eight members at a time.
Wathan	The spirit, the soul, the ego, the id, the mind, the Wathan. This is the core of the character that is beyond the physical. This is the essence which can be brought back to life with memories of the past. This is the immortal portion that goes beyond when the body dies.
WILD MAGIC	Undefined, unlimited power within an archetype. Ah, ha-ha, ha-ha, ha!! Historically these items are Gold Card items.
Worlorn System	Mark's World
Iahklu	PC, Player Character. Up to 20 players can play in Worlorn System at one session, for one Crossing-in-the-mist.
Er per'henne	NPC, Non-player character, typically the DM's character, run by one of twenty personalities.
Swefen	A character with a True Name, known to the universe. Literally: "A Significant dream." In Worlorn System, this is easiest to gain by being a first edition AD&D character who has enough experience points that her name no longer changes as each level is gained.
Aquaestor	Second edition 'blood-law' character or other non-name level dream.
Thari, Kinathru	The True Speech of Worlorn System, in which dreams are spoken. For players. this is English.
Ghunden	This is the primary folk who inhabit Llewghund. Typically this is also the race of Sentient Rib, but occasionally they are more related to Light of the World.
Wengen	This is the primary folk who inhabit New Troad. Typically this is also the race of Tanngrisnir, but occasionally they are more related to Maker of Rules.
Crogin	This is the primary folk who inhabit Plane of the Reaper. Typically this is also the race of Nerull The Reaper, but occasionally they are more related to Golden Bowl of the Buddha.
Phoenician	This is the primary folk who inhabit Fountains of Paradise. Typically this is also the race of Phoenix, but occasionally they are more related to Star of Beauty.
Reban	This is the primary folk who inhabit Watersea. Typically this is also the race of The Prince Who Was 1000, but occasionally they are more related to <Watersea Focus>.
Dark Childe	This is the primary folk who inhabit Flambeau. Typically this is also the race of Greater Prince of Evil Drow Devils, but occasionally they are more related to Star of Fire.
Aubec	This is the primary folk who inhabit Dolbadarn. Typically this is also the race of Eressea, but occasionally they are more related to Candle in the Wind.
Melnibonean	This is the primary folk who inhabit Crosswinds. Typically this is also the race of Chrysofar, but occasionally they are more related to Wind Chimes.
